7) Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives. List and briefly describe the Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives undertaken during the period covered by this Report.

(a) Initiative: Internship

Jasmine Morehead of Milford, Indiana joined us for an internship July 31, 2020 through August 31, 2020 for class credit in her Communications Class at Indiana Wesleyan University. During this time, she worked closely with multiple departments in the radio station:production, on-air, operations, sales, news and station management. Throughout her internship, Jasmine assisted in basic tasks that aided in promotional events and appearances, shadowed the on-air talent for full shifts and worked side-by-side with the News and Content Director to cover several press events and write articles for publication on the radio station website. She also attended various station hosted live broadcasts and learned the day-to-day demands of being a Marketing Representative.

(b) Initiative: Indiana Broadcasters Association Spring Career Fair

WRSW AM & FM and WAWC-FM of Kensington Digital Media of Indiana took part in the Indiana Broadcasters Association's Spring Career Fair on February 25 and 26th, 2021. The IBA pre-scheduled three interviews for participating employers and sent all resumes to browse all of the potential candidates.

(c) Initiative: Virtual Job Fair

WRSW AM & FM ad WAWC-FM of Kensington Digital Media of Indiana hosted a virtual job fair online at www.newsnowwarsaw.com. Local area employers looking for potential candidates participated in the job fair, which is running March 10,2021 through May 30, 2021. The event opened with 12 employers. More employers will be added as the online event continues. 107.3 WRSW, Willie 103.5 and News Now Warsaw 1480 AM and 99.7 FM all promoted the job fair driving listeners to the website to connect with employers. Combined, the radio stations provided over 1,000 recorded mentions and live mentions promoting the event.
